

Carrongrove Papermill WAR MEMORIAL

(SMR1189)

The brass plaque used to stand on the east wall in the entrance porch to Carronglen House, which was the main administration block for the paper mill. There is a wreath at the top and the busts of the king and queen occur at the base. A crown, swags and leaf fronds are used as decoration.

It is intended to incorporate the plaque into a freestanding structure facing the road to Fintry.
