S05211	McINTOSH	JAMES		1789	Pte	Black Watch (Royal Highlanders); 2nd Bn	Killed. Pneumonia	24/03/1919	27	Edinburgh Royal Infirmary		Bo'ness	Eldest son of Alexander McIntosh (carter) of Cowdenhill Rd (the Millar Pit). Brother of Alexander.	Serving in India when war broke out. Sent to France & then Mesopotamia, Egypt & back to France. 5 times wounded & gassed.	Distinguished Conduct Medal	Bo'ness Library List; BJ 29.1.1915, 28.3.1919; LG 28.3.1919 p.3c*		November 1914. He had been in the trenches for a month, and the snow lay on the ground, when the Germans made a determined attack upon the Indian native troops. Overwhelmed, the latter yielded ground, and a counter-attack ensued. In this attack they were led by a party of five of the 2nd Black Watch - namely Major Houston, Corporal (now sergeant) Venters (Dunfermline), pte Watters (Kelty), pte Stewart (Dundee), and pte McIntosh. Stewart, as the result of a bomb explosion, has the misfortune to lose his eyesight, but the other four went on to the end, and after a herculean effort, recaptured the trench. All four received DCMs, with Houston another honour.

S07108	McKINNON	JOHN			Sgt	Cameron Highlanders	Survived (1917)				Sunnybrae	Camelon	Son of Councillor McKinnon, Merchiston Pl, Bainsford. Brother of Charles, Neil & Archibald. Husband of Mrs McKinnon of 18 Forth St, Sunnybrae, Camelon.	Enlisted March 1915. Wounded August 1917 (in hospital in England). Presented with gold watch, umbrella & walking stick by Carron Co.	Military Medal 1916	FH 30.9.1916 p.5; 28.7.1917 p.3; 20.10.1917 p.3; 29.12.1917 p.3b; 7.9.1918 p.3b; 19.7.1919 p.8	Moulder at Mungal Foundry.	On September 3rd 1916 the Cameron Highlanders attacked at Highwood, and the objective was gained, but Germans were seen to be working their way along the trench from the right flank. It was necessary to build a barricade, and while the party, ten in number, under Cpl McKinnon, were doing so, he kept the enemy back by continual bombing until the task was completed. An order to retire was give, however, and on reaching their former position McKinnon went out into "No Man's Land" about 200 yards, at great personal danger, and brought back one of his party who had been wounded.

S02863	MacMILLAN	ANGUS			Lieut	Seaforth Highlanders									Distinguished Service Order	London Gazette 15.10.1918 p.12054		"For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during an attack. He led his company with great dash, and personally cleared up many obstacles. When the objective was gained he organised parties to deal with machine-gun nests in the houses, and surrounded a chateau, capturing two officers and a hundred men before being forced to withdraw. Later, in order to extricate his garrison from a tight place, he went forward and the leading gunner of an enemy machine gun and scattered the remainder of the team with bombs. His courage and skill throughout were an inspiration to all ranks."
